

Business: Private and family-owned wholesale lumber and building materials distribution business. We sell, design, and deliver to a wide range of customers with an emphasis on single-family residential, multi-family, commercial, and renovation.

Job Summary: Responsible for designing and sizing material for new construction from a set of blueprints using best in class software and products. You'll work alongside architects, builders, and retailers to design the most efficient floor, beam, header, and wall system that meets code, architectural plans, and the needs of the homeowner. You'll operate in a highly dynamic work environment that requires you to think critically, adapt, and find solutions for customers. You'll work behind the number one brand in the industry (Weyerhaeuser Trus Joist Engineered Wood) and have a unique opportunity to design the projects that become the forefront of our ever developing city and state.

Educational Background: Associate degree or equivalent in a relevant area such as Business, Architecture, Mechanical Drawing, Engineering, Marketing, etc.

Experience: Experience in building products and construction is preferred. Hustle, drive, and an ability to quickly learn is critical.

Special Skills: Math, including but not limited to architectural units, fractions, geometry, and basic trigonometry. Strong computer and software skills are also required and expected.

Essential Functions of the Job:

- Reading and interpreting blueprints and other design drawings
- Ensuring that designs are accurate, optimized, and conforms to local building code
- Generating layouts for final construction and providing accurate pricing for estimating and final bids
- Ability to effectively communicate to all involved parties including architects, builders, and retailers
- Provide job site support when requested/needed
- Sales and account management across a wide range of building products
- Ability to grow with the business and take on more responsibility with time

Benefits: Medical, Vision, Profit Sharing, 401(k), Vacation, Holidays, and deep belief in family and loyalty unlike any business you know